

Terms of Use for the ON6WG/F5VIF Website

A few words

The “ON6WG/F5VIF Website” is mainly dedicated to the “Eggbeater” antenna and amateur satellite communications, but not only. It is evolving together with its author.

As for us, radio hams, the primary aim is “communication beyond any barrier” ... this website was created to give information, to arouse interest, to facilitate the project completion of some of us, and to share the experience gained in some fields with the radio ham community. In the “Ham spirit” the sharing of knowledge is free and disinterested.

In order to keep the ethics of the radio ham spirit ...

In order that the content of this website (mentioned anywhere in other sources) should always be the newest with the latest updates ...

To prevent the content of this website to be used anarchically ...
